

IGEL'S SHARK

The Mission Is Clear - Touchdown On Planet Rock!

Actually there's no need for more words, when it comes to describe this three- piece- Rock 'n' Roll band from Vienna, Austria.

Especially if you've ever seen them live. Because in this case you just know it: they accomplish this mission with each and every live show they play. That's probably why they've already had the honor to open up for bands like AC/DC, Airbourne, Skunk Anansie, The Subways, Flogging Molly, The Supersuckers and so on.

Their beginnings go back to 2009, but they really started off to their everlasting mission in 2015, after taking a break from 2012 to 2014.

In September 2019, they finally released their self-titled debut album on Pogo's Empire. And for everybody who likes to get hit right between the eyes by some straightforward rock music, their debut album will be THE shit. Assuming there won't be another pandemic or a dictator throwing a wrench in their works, they will release their second album in 2023.
